

Have we lost our way?

*Our principles are our compass! When the lines are not so clear
We should never allow reasoning to deny them!
Our Founding Fathers understood this, why can't we?*

*One nation under God, indivisible,
With liberty and justice for all [men]
Pledge Allegiance*

*We hold these truths to be self-evident,
That "All Men" are created equal,
That they are endowed by their Creator
With certain unalienable Rights,*

*The Declaration of Independence
Cruel and unusual punishments shall not be inflicted.*

Amendment VIII

*"Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people.
It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other."*

John Adams

*"Treat the enemy with humanity; let them have no reason to Complain
Of our Copying the brutal example of the British Army
In their treatment of our unfortunate brethren*

George Washington

*Humane treatment of prisoners
Not only reflected the American Revolution's highest ideals,
They are a moral and strategic requirement.*

John Adams 1777

I know of no policy, God is my witness, but this Piety, Humanity and Honesty are the best Policy.

John Adams

So I ask you! Should America Torture for any reason?

Maybe we are no longer nation under God,

*Maybe it's not so self-evident to us, that "All Men" are created equal,
Maybe we don't really believe All Men have certain unalienable Rights*

Maybe we are as Cruel as the godless

Maybe we claim morality and godliness with the tongue but the heart says differently

Maybe our thoughts of the highest ideals are hypocritical

Maybe Piety, Humanity and Honesty are not our Policy

Maybe the Lord has left us desolate?

If we were to turn from doing evil do you think God might heal & protect us?

Might He bless us for doing the Godly thing?

Or will He curse us for desecrating the image of God [man]

God's Justice cannot sleep for ever – Thomas Jefferson
